Solomon's Conclusion of this Matter (Ecclesiastes 1)

There is nothing new under the sun, all is meaningless

God's Conclusion of this Matter

Everything is new under the Son, all is meaningful

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.” – John 13:34

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! – 2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor is not in vain. – 1 Corinthians 15:58

The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now something greater than Solomon is here. – Matthew 12:42

He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!”

– Revelation 21:5

Two possible outcomes at the end of your life:

Revel

Regret

Two choices right here, right now:

Resign

Resolve

Small Group Questions

- 1) What's an activity you enjoy doing "under the sun?" What's something you don't enjoy "under the sun"?
- 2) What do you think of when you hear the word meaningless? How does that impact the way you read Ecclesiastes 1?
- 3) Solomon had it all but couldn't hold it all together. Why do you think having more can make it more difficult to keep a healthy perspective?
- 4) How do you want to finish this life? Share some words to describe how you would like to finish well.
- 5) What can you resolve to do right now that will allow you to revel in your final chapter of life? What's keeping you from doing it?
- 6) How can we pray for you right now and throughout the week?
