Forgiveness / Matthew 18:21-35

Warm-up: Be brave (: Share about a time you had to ask someone for forgiveness. What happened and how did you address it? How did you feel during the process?

Read: Matthew 18:21-35

In this passage, Jesus explains to Peter the infinite depth of forgiveness we've been given and are called to show to others as Jesus' disciples. This story exposes our hearts, which tend towards unforgiveness.

1. C.S Lewis said, "Everyone says forgiveness is a lovely idea, until they have something to forgive." Do you find this statement to be true? Why or why not?
2. '10,000 talents' indicates an infinite or maximum amount of debt. How does this story help us better understand the good news of Jesus?
3. What are ways you've seen and experienced the forgiveness of God in your own life?
4. Why did the master forgive the servant? What does that tell you about how God sees us in our position apart from Him?
5. What you notice about the servant's pursuit of his debtor? How is it different than how he was treated by the master?
6. Why do think this disconnect exists for us of being forgiveness yet having trouble forgiving others?
7. Why can't our relationship with God and others thrive without forgiveness?

Prayer: How can we pray for each other this week?
